The Ambassador joined the Department of Foreign Affairs in 1997. Her previous diplomatic assignments abroad, in various capacities, were at the Philippine Embassies in Berne, Switzerland; Rome, Italy; the Holy See, Vatican State; and Tokyo, Japan.

In Manila at the Department of Foreign Affairs, she held middle-management positions, at the Office of Financial Management Services, the Office Asset Management Services, the Office of Consular Affairs, and the Office of Asia-Pacific Affairs.

Ms. Pono – who used to be a Certified Public Accountant - holds a Bachelor's degree in Commerce from the University of San Carlos in Cebu City. She likewise did Masteral Studies in International Relations at the University of the Philippines in Diliman, as well as in as well as Masteral Studies in Business Administration at De la Salle University in Manila.

Aside from Cebuano, Tagalog and English, she speaks other languages like Spanish and Italian.

Not the least, Ms. Pono is proud to say that she hails from the beautiful island of Cebu in central Philippines.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

BENJAMIN E. DIOKNO, PhD

Secretary

Department of Finance

Dr. Diokno is the current Secretary of Finance. Prior to his appointment, he served as Governor of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) from 2019 to 2022. Under his leadership, the Philippine central bank was among the first to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic and deploy decisive measures to cushion its adverse impact and pave the road to recovery.

Before taking charge of monetary affairs, he served as Budget Secretary under three presidents, where he pursued an expansionary fiscal policy to finance investments in human capital development and public infrastructure.

As Finance Secretary, Diokno seeks to rally the economic team to achieve three broad development goals by 2028: reduce the deficit-to-GDP ratio to pre-pandemic rates, bring down poverty incidence to single-digits, and achieve upper middle-income economy status by the end of the Marcos Jr. administration. Diokno seeks to go beyond headline economic expansion and achieve a brand of inclusive and sustainable growth with equity.

Diokno's policy expertise and research contribution extend to various areas of public economics, such as the structure and scope of government, tax policies and reforms, public expenditure management analysis, fiscal decentralization, national budget, and public debt, among other topics. He has vast experience in formulating and implementing public sector reforms, having also served as Budget Undersecretary from 1986 to 1991 and Budget Secretary from 1998 to 2001 and from 2016 to 2019.

He is Professor Emeritus of the University of the Philippines-Diliman. For over 40 years, he taught the following courses: Public Sector Economics, Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Development Economics, and Special Topics (e.g., Public Enterprises Investment and Pricing Policies; Public Sector Reforms; Local Government Finance). He was also Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila (City University of Manila).

He served as Fiscal Adviser to the Philippine Senate. He also served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Philippine National Oil Company and Chairman of the Local Water Utilities Administration.

Some of his major policy reform contributions include: formulating the 1986 Tax Reform Program, which simplified the income tax system and introduced the value-added tax in the Philippines; helping design the 1991 Local Government Code of the Philippines; initiating a What-You-See-Is-What-You-Get policy to streamline the release of funds; and sponsoring the internationally lauded Government Procurement Reform Act to modernize, regulate, and standardize government procurement activities in the Philippines.

He served as an adviser and consultant to various multilateral agencies like the World Bank, Asian Development Bank, European Commission, and US Agency for International Development for work in the Philippines, China, and transitioning economies like Vietnam, Cambodia, and Mongolia.

He has also participated in numerous international conferences hosted by the International Monetary Fund, Asian Development Bank, World Bank, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation, and United Nations, among other international organizations. He authored numerous publications and discussion papers regarding his research interests that have been published in academic journals and policy reports.

He finished his Bachelor's Degree in Public Administration (1968) and his Master's Degree in Public Administration (1970) and Economics (1974) at the University of the Philippines-Diliman. He also holds an MA in Political Economy (1976) from the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland, USA and a PhD in Economics (1981) from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University in Syracuse, New York, USA. In 2017, he received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from the University of the Philippines—the highest academic rank and honor conferred by the university.
